

THE BRITISH ASSOCIATION OF LOCAL HISTORY
in conjunction with Northallerton and District Local History Society
DAY CONFERENCE
SATURDAY, 29th SEPTEMBER 2012
NORTHALLERTON FORUM

‘The North Riding of Yorkshire in an Age of Transition 1750-1820’
The social and economic development of a rural county

‘A Historical Atlas of North Yorkshire (2003): Past and Future agendas’.
Robin Butlin, Professor Emeritus of Historical Geography, University of Leeds

‘The evolution of a County town: Northallerton’
Jennifer Allison, Teacher and Local Historian

‘Richmond “a super-abundant enjoyment for the sight” Viscount Torrington (1792)’
Jane Hatcher, Architectural and Local Historian

‘John Tuke’s and Arthur Young’s tours of the County and the formation of the Board of Agriculture (1793)’
Dr Winifred Stokes. Socio-Economic Historian

‘George Walker and The Costume of Yorkshire (1814): maintaining the status quo ?’
Dr George Sheeran, Honorary Visiting Research Fellow, University of Bradford

‘The demise of the local Corn Mill’
John Harrison, Industrial Archaeologist

‘The Linen Industry of Cleveland and the Vale of Mowbray’
Barry Harrison, Lecturer and Local Historian
University of Leeds Department of Continuing Education (retired)

‘The Extractive Industries of the North Riding’
Mike Gill, Mining Historian and Recorder of the Northern Mine Research Society

‘The Alum Industry of the North Yorkshire Moors’
David Pybus, Researcher, Whitby Literary and Philosophical Society

‘Chairman’s concluding remarks and a social perspective’
Malcolm Chase, Professor of Social History, University of Leeds

The day starts at 10.00 am and finishes at 5.30 pm with morning and afternoon coffee breaks and a lunch break between 1.00 and 2.30 pm. The fee is £12.50 which includes coffee breaks, but not lunch. Cheques to be made payable to Northallerton and District Local History Society – Conference Account. Email acknowledgements will be sent, but otherwise a stamped addressed envelope is required. Please send your completed Booking Slip with your cheque to John Sheehan, Secretary, NDLHS, 4 Arden Mews, Northallerton. North Yorkshire DL6 1EN. Telephone number for enquiries: 01609 771878.

BOOKING SLIP

The North Riding of Yorkshire in an age of Transition 1750-1820: Saturday 29th September 2012

Name(s):

Postal Address:

Email Address:

Telephone Number:

No of persons:

Amount: